Plagiarism Declaration

Plagiarism is defined as “the unacknowledged use, as one’s own, of work of another person, whether or not such work has been published, and as may be further elaborated in Faculty or University guidelines” (University Assessment Regulations, 2009, Regulation 39 (b)(i), University of Malta).

I, the undersigned, declare that the report submitted is my work, except where acknowledged and referenced. I understand that the penalties for committing a breach of the regulations include loss of marks; cancellation of examination results; enforced suspension of studies; or expulsion from the degree programme. Work submitted without this signed declaration will not be corrected, and will be given zero marks.
